

Walkthrough

1. To unlock area, finish events at Valestein then talk to Edgar in his house to obtain Will o' Wisp.
2. Enter the maze. Equip the Will o' Wisp using the R1 button and activate it with R2 to light up the area.
3. In the first vertical room, there is a block that stops passage to the bottom level, as shown in the picture. It can be consistently clipped through by falling on top of the block, entering the screen to the right, then keep holding left so you return to this room, run towards the block, and clip through when you hit the wall.
4. The only treasure is a Spirit Necklace, which allows a one-time resurrection. All of the dead ends have nothing in them and should be avoided.
5. A block sits at the bottom of the vertical sections and slowly rises to the top. If it is not there, leave the screen and return.
6. Defeat Garland (second form) and watch the scenes at the top of the tower then step into the lift to fight Galbalan. His hands must be destroyed before he can take damage, then for his second form you must wait until his red weak point appears.
